BARBARA Home Collection II

The new BARBARA Home Collection is here

What a splendid vista of green, violet or powdery blue. The second BARBARA Home Collection is entering another new season with strong colours and motifs, all guaranteed to work in your home. And no wonder: after all, we're talking about Barbara Schöneberger's favourite pieces, which have provided her with plenty of inspiration. There's her much-loved patchwork coat, for instance. Or her hallway carpet, which embodies the finest in vintage flair. You can look forward to a chic collection brimming with personality and charm, natural corners and modern edges – and enjoy kicking back beneath the palm leaves. Barbara Schöneberger wouldn't want it any other way.
