Natural exotic atmosphere to feel good

Elephants, lions, giraffes, zebras and monkeys feel jolly in the LIRICO collection. And a wide variety of palm trees, banana leaves, imaginative flowers and a wonderful striped pattern are also delighted to be part of this exotic, yet unexcited collection. Sophisticated and natural at the same time. This was particularly successful with these two or three coloured non-woven wallpapers and wall paintings. Thanks to the reduced yet very clever use of colours, each pattern brings its own and individual atmosphere into the room, either alone or in combination. Colourful is not an attribute of this collection, but there's still a lot of energy to be found in the colours. The colour palette leaves nothing to be desired and ranges from different white and natural tones to fresh colours such as golden yellow, rust red, mint green, sage green, cobalt blue and black. And even for those who don't want to do without a little glamour, there are fantastic wallcoverings with a golden sheen.

Floral masterpiece

Imaginative floral patterns don't always have to be colourful. Even with a little colour, clever graphic design can skilfully set the scene for the world of botany. Here, artistic flowers and leaves in black and white are generously scattered across the finely textured rust red background. This non-woven wallcovering transforms any wall into a work of art.
