TIMEOUT

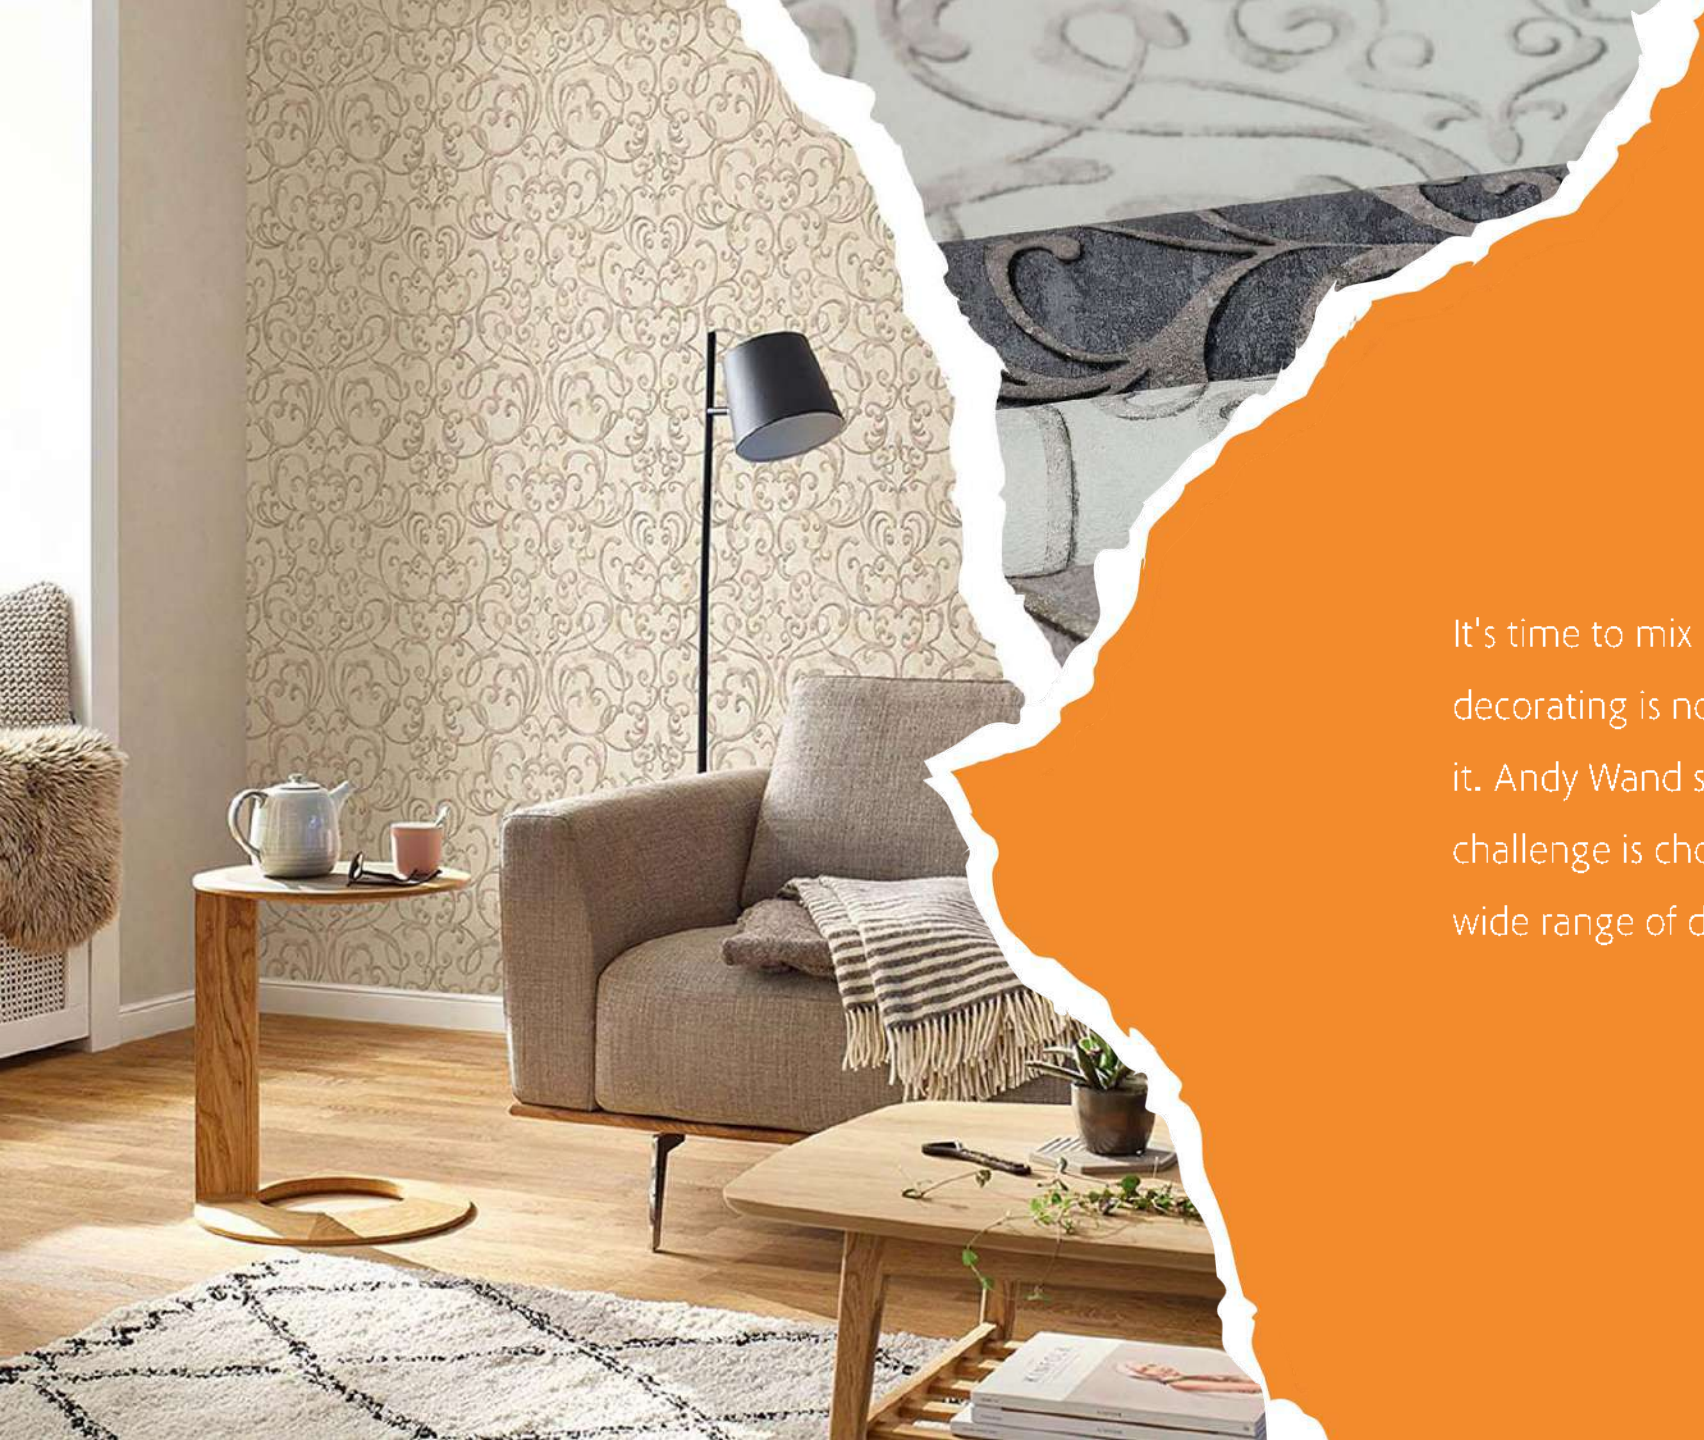

#tapetenwechsel

#tapetenwechsel

If your walls appear dreary and monotonous, we have the solution: TIMEOUT - It's time for #newwallcoverings.

It's time to mix up some paste, because decorating is not rocket science. Anyone can do it. Andy Wand shows you how! The only challenge is choosing the right look from the wide range of designs available.

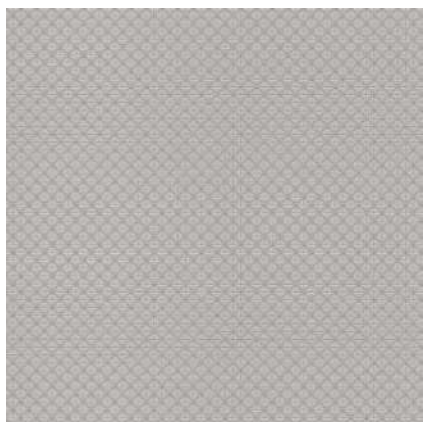

Natural and vibrant or stylish and chic? Extravagant plant prints and sophisticated graphics? But block stripes or fine lines are also fantastic eye-catchers. Combinations of patterns and solid colours, or a single wallcovering design? There are so many options, but however you decide, changing the wallcovering is a breeze.
